And add, after 2 days I got a reply from her with her contact no. And address, and she told to call her in the morning after 11am so that she will finish all her work and her daughter will be sleeping at that time, so after 2 days I ringed to her, I had heard a sweet voice "hello who is this' I said that its me santosh, how r u Mrs. .. , she said she is fine and she was happy to receive the call from me, and she talked with me for 10 min and she said to come to her house on next day as her parents and parents in law r going out of station due to some function and none will be there, and I said that I will be coming to her house.
